- * The registration fee covers registration with NZALI, and is payable only once, regardless of how many courses you may choose to study with NZALI.

Note: we offer a 'preferred candidate incentive' of $2,500 for applicants who already have a degree. This reduces the 'headline' cost of $21,300 above to $18,800.

Note: in accordance with New Zealand government regulations, all course fees received from international students are held in trust at the government-owned Public Trust. See <http://www.publictrust.co.nz/about-us/government-guarantee>. If payment is being made to an NZALI recruitment agent, then the full fee paid must be paid to Public Trust by the agent, by the close of business on the working day following the day it is received by the recruitment agent.
