

THE EDUCATION (PASTORAL CARE OF TERTIARY AND INTERNATIONAL LEARNERS)
CODE OF PRACTICE 2021

SELF EVALUATION AND REVIEW REPORT 2023

Finalised 25 October 2023

Preamble

The Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021 ('The New Code') requires providers to have strategic goals and strategic plans for supporting the wellbeing and safety of their learners across their organisation.

This report is presented per Clause 9 of the New Code.

NZALI Strategic Goals and Strategic Plans 2023

The following are our strategic goals and strategic plans for supporting the wellbeing and safety of learners:

- Review all programmes annually
  - Review learner wellbeing and safety strategic goals and strategic plans annually
  - Monitor learner wellbeing and safety monthly
  - Review quality of learner wellbeing and safety practices annually
  - Work with diverse learners and their communities annually to review the quality of wellbeing and safety practices
  - Annually promulgate Self-Review Report to all interested parties
  - Analyse learner and other stakeholder feedback annually, to identify emerging concerns about learners' wellbeing and safety or behaviour
  - Run annual staff workshops, to provide staff with ongoing training and resources tailored to their roles in the organisation, re the requirements of the New Code; and support all staff through ongoing learning around Māori tikanga
  - Annually review NZALI Health and Safety Manual
  - Survey learners annually (as part of broader Stakeholder and Participant Feedback exercise)
  - Review Complaints Register; and Reported Risks and Concerns Report; and Annual Complaints Report to Management, at least annually
  - Review Policy on Physical and Learning Resources; and review all resources, annually
- Regularly review, update (and keep up-to-date) website, and all relevant manuals, documents, handbooks, and protocols
  - Make the New Code available to all learners and staff, in English and te reo Māori
  - Promote the New Code on our website and in learning material

- Regularly update details of welfare support organisations listed in Programme Handbook
- Involve learners in the design of physical and digital environments when making improvements
- Engage with Māori and involve Māori in the design of physical and digital environments where appropriate
- Keep records of all plans, reviews, and action plans, and ensure the plans and reviews are made available in an accessible form to students, staff, and stakeholders annually.

Revisions to strategic goals and strategic plans since the last Self-Review Report was published:

The following revisions have been made to our strategic goals and strategic plans since the last Self-Review Report was published:

- None

Critical Incidents and Emergencies Report

Per Clause 10 (3) (g) of the New Code, the following critical incidents and emergencies have occurred since the previous Self-Review Report was published:

- None

Annual Complaints Report to Management

Per Clause 13 (f) of the New Code, the following reports concerning complaints have been received by management since the previous Self-Review Report was published:

- None

Assessment Key

See foot of this document for explanations of the four assessment options available for use in the 'Assessment' column.

Organisational structures to support a whole-of-provider approach to learner wellbeing and safety

Outcome 1: A learner wellbeing and safety system

Providers must take a whole-of-provider approach to maintain a strategic and transparent learner wellbeing and safety system that responds to the diverse needs of their learners.

The only 'international student' we could conceivably have would be a learner on one of our micro-credential courses who is not a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident, and yet is legally present in New Zealand (for example, on a work visa).  Currently we do not have any non-New Zealand citizen or permanent resident learners enrolled.  However, NZALI, in a previous incarnation, did recruit international students to come to study in New Zealand on student visas, so we are familiar with the distinct wellbeing and safety needs of diverse international tertiary learners.
